CONSTITUTION MAKERS QUIT UNTIL APRIL

Three Months' More Work to Finish, is Estimate.

Jefferson City, Dec. 15.—The constitutional convention, which has been in session since May 15 drafting a new constitution for Missouri, adjourned today until next April 16.

The convention is composed of 83 delegates and more than 100 clerks and attaches. The expenditures of the body, have amounted to approximately $329,300. The convention appropriated a total of $350,000 for salaries and expenditures and of this sum there was a balance today of $20,700.

There was no work transacted at the last session of the body.

Before Chairman C. M. Shartel of Neosho called the convention to order members listened to a musical concert by the students of Lincoln university, the state school for negroes.

When the body resumes its deliberations next April, it is conservatively estimated it will require three months in which to complete its work and submit the draft of a new constitution to the voters of the state.

No part of the proposed new constitution has been finally adopted by the convention. Thirteen of the 14 committees have made reports to the convention. Eight of the reports have been acted upon by the convention and sent to the committee on phraseology for final revision. They must again be adopted by the convention on being returned. The committee on redistricting is the only one which has not submitted its report to the convention.

One of the last acts of the convention was the adoption of a resolution providing that the committee on phraseology can meet at the call of the chairman during the period of adjournment.

A movement has been started to have the committee hold its sessions at Columbia where it would have access to the library of the university. Adjournment of the convention at this time was necessitated by the approaching session of the legislature. The convention has held its sessions in the hall of the house of representatives.

The Times' phone number is 37 Get the habit of calling up.

MISSOURI NOTES

El Dorado Springs has an accommodating postmaster. Mail for that town arrives on a branch of the M. K. & T. railroad from Nevada and the schedule was such that no mail would arrive Christmas morning. The postmaster hired trucks to meet the trains at Nevada Christmas morning and haul the mail to El Dorado Springs so that Santa Claus could make his regular visit.

State Treasurer Thompson was notified late Thursday of the safe arrival at New York of the second $5,000,000 of state road bonds, their delivery to the purchasing syndicate and the fact the cash totalling nearly $4,990,000 has been deposited in the City National Bank of New York to the credit of Missouri, this being the purchase money, plus about $12,500 for accrued interest.

George Wesham Davies, a grand opera singer and fourth husband of Mrs. Julia Woods Davies, who died at Excelsior Springs two weeks ago has filed the will of his wife in the Probate Court by which he inherits practically all of the $5,000,000 estate which she inherited from her father, the late Dr. W. S. Woods of Kansas City.

Approximately 6,000,000 lbs. of sunflower seed, double last year's production will be produced this year in Southeast Missouri, according to the estimate of farmers. More sunflowers are grown in Missouri than any other state, it was said. The increased production is due mainly to the larger acreage planted and the increased yield per acre, farmers stated.

Conductor Gravely Dies.

John H. Gravely, 82 years old, for 50 years a Missouri Pacific passenger conductor, died Tuesday, Dec. 19th, 1922, in Atlanta, Georgia. Mr. Gravely had made his home in Kansas City for many years. He was one of the most popular conductors on the Mo. Pacific system, and was probably known by more men, women and children than any conductor on the line between Kansas City and Joplin.

Mr. Gravely was a retired conductor. Pension retirement was granted him October 15, 1921.
